

Bradley Academy Musical Theatre

What is JTF?

- The Junior Theater Festival is the largest celebration of musical theater for young people held annually in Atlanta, Georgia and is produced by iTheatrics.
- JTF is held every Martin Luther King Jr. weekend just north of downtown Atlanta at the Cobb Galleria Centre.

JFT 15

3 Countries, 101 Groups, 4,500 participants

What does a group do at JTF?

- Groups perform a 15 minute selection of one Broadway JR. or KIDS Collection show for adjudication, participate in workshops specifically designed for student performers, and watch outstanding performances by their peers.

Rehearsals

To Performance and Adjudication

JTF gives everyone who attends the opportunity to experience the transformative power of musical theater through watching performances, attending workshops, and making connections with other musical theater groups from around the world.

Attending Technical Workshops

Attending Dance/Acting/Vocal Workshops

Making connections.

Watching Performances

Watching Performances

WINNING AWARDS

Broadway Slam

One of the most anticipated events of the festival! Creative teams and casts are selected at random and have just one hour to rehearse a song and dance for presentation on the main stage!

All-Stars

Selected student performers and student technicians are chosen as festival All-Stars. All-Stars participate in exclusive workshops and are given the opportunity to be a major part of the Freddie G Awards Ceremony.

Tech- All Star

Most Inspirational Performer

with Tim MacDonald - CEO of iTheatrics

Freddie G Award

“The Freddie G’s”, in honor of Freddie Gershon, Music Theatre International chairman and Broadway Junior founder. Each year 8 musical theatre educators are invited by Freddie to join him in New York City for the Freddie G Theatre Experience... where they receive a “Flat Freddie”, work with Broadway professionals in workshops, and $5,000 for their Theatre Department.

What surprised you at JTF?

junior theater
Festival 2015
10th anniversary

